The University of Dayton today accepts with pride the Holy Quran, the revealed book of the Muslims from The Ahmadiyya Movement of Islam, Inc., Dayton Mosque.

Accepting for UD is Mr. Raymond Nartker, Director of Libraries, and Mr. Robert Donovan, Registrar. The donated book is being given by Mohammad Qasim, Amir, Dayton Jamaat. The ceremony is being held in the Director's office of the Library on Wednesday, August 8, at 3:00 P.M.

In correspondence from Mohammad Qasim, the Amir says in part: "The 'Holy Quran' is the revealed book of the Muslims, and belongs to the whole world, to all humanity, and a study of this Holy Scripture can definitely pave the way for a better understanding between all the contemporary religions and lead to international peace and brotherhood."
